Recommendations to Improve Seattle's Civilian Oversight System
Seattle's Office of Professional Accountability Review Board
Issues Recommendations

SEATTLE - Seattle's Office of Professional Accountability Review Board (OPARB) announces ten key recommendations for restructuring and strengthening the Board's role in Seattle's Civilian Oversight System.

OPARB is a citizen panel that reviews Seattle Police Department's policies, procedures, and conduct as part of an accountability system that includes a civilian director and an independent auditor.

OPARB encourages constituent comments and questions. All communications should be sent to opareviewboard@seattle.gov. Board members welcome constituents to all of their meetings. Meetings are held twice a month in the Al Rochester Room, 2nd floor, City Hall • First Wednesdays, 11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. • Third Thursdays, 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Board Chair: Dale Tiffany

Vice Chair: Pat Sainsbury
